CONFIDENTIALITY OF STUDENT RECORDS

Portions of a student's record, which include the following, are confidential: (Florida Statute 1002.22)

Academic work completed

Grades

Standardized test scores, including academic, intelligence, Aptitude, and psychological tests

Attendance records

Interest inventory reports

Health data

Student identifying data (social security number)

Teacher ratings and observations

Counselor ratings and observations

Verified report of serious or recurrent behavior pattern

Family background information

It is important that volunteers comply with the requirements of the Florida Statute with respect to an individual child's privacy rights. The above items and anything else dealing with personal information about the student, are not to be discussed with anyone other than the teacher, with whom the volunteer works, the counselor at the school, or the principal. Failure to respect these privacy rights has legal consequences as the Florida Statute also specifies that parents of a child whose privacy rights are not respected have a right to court action to enforce the violated right by injunction.

I HAVE READ THE ABOVE AND WILL AGREE TO COMPLY WITH THESE STATUTES.

Pursuant to Florida Statute 1012.32 (2012), applicants having been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude shall not be permitted to volunteer in any position requiring direct contact with students. Otherwise, an applicant shall not be disqualified from volunteering solely because of a prior conviction for a crime. Nevertheless, a person may be denied permission to volunteer pursuant to FS 112.011, (2012), by reason of a prior conviction if the crime was a felony or first-degree misdemeanor and directly related to the area volunteering in is requested.

YOU ARE REQUIRED TO DISCLOSE this information even if you have been told differently by a lawyer, judge, law enforcement or other third party. All criminal histories must be provided regardless of the number of years since the arrest.
